Questions from parents	confusion about "no homework"	Project foundry needs to be explained to families. Family members can have a project foundry page created by child's advisor. Through this page, families can monitor progress and project proposals. Students aren't assigned homework, but are expected to complete work every night (reading, math, project progress, etc.)
Feb. 13th DIY Night	Details of fundraiser!	Call to all families--need assistance getting supplies donated. Discussed theme and timeline in detail.
